KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Frontier is excited to announce the addition of two new team members to its Kansas City office: John Arndt and Helen Hulshof.

Arndt, a Senior Financial Planner, joins the financial planning team and will work closely with clients to provide customized wealth management strategies. Hulshof, Corporate Retirement Specialist, will use her holistic understanding of the corporate retirement process and financial market expertise to provide expert knowledge to Frontier's retirement plan clients. She has 30-plus years' experience in the retirement service industry. Prior to joining Frontier, she was a relationship manager with the national 401(k) provider, BMO Harris. Hulshof is a graduate of the University of South Dakota.

"The addition of John and Helen further strengthens our team of specialists, ensuring that we are providing the best support possible for our wealth advisors and, ultimately, our clients," said Nick Blasi, Frontier CEO.
